

I am very satisfied with the law in Indiana which protects me from numerous harassing phone calls. Before the law, I received 10-12 calls per week. After the law, I receive 1-2 calls per month. I resent very much someone using my phone service, which I pay for, to harass me with solicitations. I urge you to leave Indiana protections alone.